The great Presidential campaign of 1868 is fairly begun. Our candidates are in the field, and our platforms before the people. For the purpose of giving the widest circulation and the most efficient support to the principles of the Republican party, we have determined to put the price of THE CAMPAIGN WEEKLY TRIBUNE down to the lowest cost of newspaper. The reduced rate given below.

To secure the election of GRANT and COLFAX, public opinion must be ready for the ballot-box. All the truths of Republicanism must be impressed upon the minds of the public masses, documents must be distributed, and in every possible way the people must be aroused to exertion and to duty. The most comprehensive, effective and convincing document that can be distributed in the Northwest is THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE. From the day that the first gun was fired on Fort Sumter, throughout the rebellion, and from the close of the war to the present time, the TRIBUNE has battled for the great result with those who were fighting for the unity and integrity of the Republic, and for a lasting peace based on equal rights; and it intends to fight it out on that line. Republicans, if you want good arguments to use for GRANT and COLFAX, for PALMER and the STATE TICKET, send them copies of the CAMPAIGN TRIBUNE. When they once become imbued with the elevated principles of the Republican party, they will vote for the ticket at every subsequent election.

THE CAMPAIGN TRIBUNE, in addition to its own discussions of the issues of the campaign, will contain reports of public addresses made in all parts of the country, and especially of those occurring in the Northwest, together with important speeches and documents.

ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND copies should of course be distributed right out the Northwest. Get up clubs at once. Now is the time for action. The circulation of THE TRIBUNE is already large, but we are able to print more, and are willing to do so at the bare cost of material, paying nothing for labor. We therefore offer the
